Options/Discussion:

On December 6, 2022, Council considered and approved Report Number 23-012 with respect to the 2023 Calendar of Meetings. In keeping with the City's commitment to continuous education, training and development, Council endorsed an additional eight special Council meetings. This meeting is the eighth in a series of special Council meetings throughout 2023.

The Office of Strategy, Innovation & Partnerships will provide an overview of the department across three pillars of activity:

- Advancing Economic Growth: Workforce Development, Family Physician Recruitment, Rural Economic Development, Business Support, Cleantech Sector Accelerator, Health Innovation & Life Sciences Sector Development and Kingston Airport
- Growing Non-Tax Revenue: Grant Development and Marketing and Revenue Generation
- Improving Decision-Making, Efficiency and Reducing Costs: Data and Research, Social Innovation and Process Improvement.
