KINGSTON

We're thrilled to announce the return of the Climate Change Symposium to the Kingston Grand Theatre on January 20, 2025!

Under the theme "Rooted in Action: Empowering Youth to Build a Sustainable Future," the 2025 Symposium is set to be an inspiring event highlighting youth-led climate action, bringing together passionate young leaders, environmental adv ocates, educators and community members for engaging dialogue on climate solutions driven by youth.

Joining this year's line-up:

- Autumn Peltier, an Indigenous Rights & Water Activist whose journey for justice has made waves around the globe
- Lilah Williamson, an award-winning climate activist, community organizer and founder of Climate Strike Canada, a national network of youth climate groups
- Ali Hassan, CBC personality and host of Laugh Out Loud and the annual literary contest, Canada Reads, will return as our event host
- Panelist discussion on climate action in the arts (speakers to be announced soon)

Don't miss this opportunity to be part of the movement toward a sustainable and resilient future. Purchase your tickets now on the Kingston Grand Theatre website and join us for an inspiring and informative discussion that will leave you motivated to take action.

Tickets are $10 each. This event will also be livestreamed. Details to come in January 2025.

Illumination: International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Date and Time: Monday, January 27 12:00 am - 12:00 am

Address: City Hall

City Hall will be illuminated yellow tonight to honour victims and the survivors of the Holocaust. Since 2005, the United Nations and its member states have held commemoration ceremonies on January 27 to mark the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau. The colour yellow evokes the memorial candles lit in remembrance of all victims of the Shoah (Holocaust), which is an integral part of Holocaust commemorations.
